THE MONTHLY NEWSLETTER OF
THE STARK COUNTY LAW LIBRARY

WestlawNext to Replace Westlaw Classic in Dec.

Thomson Reuters Phasing Out Westlaw Classic for Government Subscribers at Year's End

Having already been phased out at academic law libraries in early July, Westlaw Classic will be officially retired from the Stark County law library on December 31st.

In a letter to their government subscribers, Thomson Reuters, cited the popularity and superiority of WestlawNext as the primary reason for retiring Classic, saying "WestlawNext is the world's most advanced online legal research tool, and it is the platform of our future for our Government legal business."

To ensure a smooth transition for everyone, the law library has organized two free WestlawNext training sessions on Wednesday, October 8th. A beginner session will be held at 9:30 am, and an advanced session will be held at 11:00 am. Attendees will earn 1 free CLE credit.

To register for either training session, please e-mail inform@starkcountyohio.gov or call 330-451-7380.

If you haven't yet made the switch to WestLawNext, below are several resources that will help get you up to speed ASAP.

Tips on Transitioning to WestlawNext

- 3 Westlaw Next patron access guides are located next to the library's public computers.
- Several academic law libraries have posted online WestlawNext tutorials. Indiana University's WestlawNext Lib-Guide can be found here: <http://law.indiana.libguides.com/content.php?pid=590573&sid=4868927>
- Free training videos are also available on the Thomson Reuters website: <http://www.westelearning.com/Training/Subject/Display/9>.
- The law library will be hosting two free WestLawNext training sessions on Oct. 8th (beginner users at 9:30 am and advanced users at 11:00 am).

*The library will be closed
Monday, September 1st

Timely Estate Planning Strategies and Solutions from the Heckerling Institute

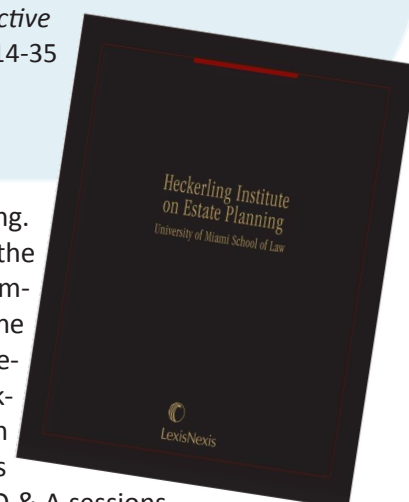

Part law review, part conference transcript, the 48th Annual Heckerling Institute on Estate Planning is the print record of the University of Miami Law School's 2014 estate planning conference.

Held every year in Florida, the Heckerling Institute is known for bringing together thousands of estate planning professionals and scholars to take part in a variety of podium lectures and panel discussions that represent the latest trends in estate planning.

The print record of the 2014 conference is a complete compilation of all the papers and lectures presented at this year's Heckerling Institute and even includes edited transcripts of some panel discussion Q & A sessions on topics like practical planning implications and tax issues.

Discover the Legal History of Censorship During Banned Books Week

Even before the invention of the printing press, the general public and the legal community have struggled with issues of censorship. Banned Books Week (September 21st - 27th) is the perfect opportunity to explore past and present legal issues and precedents regarding censorship and first amendment rights.

The National Coalition Against Censorship (NCAC) has created a "Censorpedia" that documents the history of censorship all the way back to 500 BC!

Find it here: <http://ncac.org/resourcecensorpedia/>.
